Summary:

Lars has been with the Haussmann Group since 1999 and is a member of the executive management since 2000. He is a partner at Zurich based Haussmann Treuhand AG where he heads both Trust Business and Company Administration. These business areas provide services to mostly foreign controlled entities in Switzerland.

Lars is a non-executive director of various internationally-orientated Swiss companies in different industries. With this background Lars has considerable experience in advising foreign shareholders and their local representatives on all kind of corporate matters in Switzerland. These clients also benefit from close working relationships with local lawyers, notaries and the cantonal trade registers.

In addition to the above services Haussmann Treuhand AG advises clients from the incorporation of a Swiss entity to its liquidation and provides outsourcing services such as Accounting, Tax Compliance, VAT Compliance and Salary Administration during a company's entire life cycle.

Lars is a graduate in economics at the University of Zürich and a Swiss certified chartered accountant. Before joining the Haussmann Group, Lars was an Assistant Manager at PwC, Zurich, where he worked in the trade and industry segment of the audit department. He is fluent in German and English and has conversational skills in French, Italian and Norwegian.
